Diane Lynn was born on April 25, 1961 to Donald E. and Nancy Joan (Sorensen) Hansen. Diane grew up in Central City, graduating from Central City High School in 1979. She then attended Kearney State College, where she graduated with her B.S. in 1983. Following her schooling, Diane received her first job with the State Probation Office in Grand Island. Diane would remain with them as a probation officer for 29 years where she had a positive influence over the people she guided in her work. She then took a job in Broken Bow with the Central Plains Center for Services, where she remained until her health would no longer allow her to work.

On March 23, 1996 Diane Hansen and Ellis Collins were united in marriage at Messiah Lutheran Church. They would later have two boys; Braden and Samson, who were the absolute loves of her life. She always embraced, and loved to be a wife, and mother to her two boys. She was extremely involved in all of their activities, and wouldn't have traded that for anything. In 2003 Diane won a Harley Davidson, and from that day on she was hooked on motorcycles. She loved to ride her motorcycle, she was a member of the Patriot Guard Riders, and annually made the trip to Sturgis, South Dakota for the Sturgis Motorcycle Rally. She was a huge Husker football fan, she loved to go to concerts and never missed an opportunity to do some shopping.

Diane was a member of the Grace Lutheran Church in Central City, until moving to Grand Island where she then became an active member at the Messiah Lutheran Church. She was an accomplished pianist and organist who loved to play for church services, weddings, and funerals. She was also a committee member for the Nebraska Law Enforcement Memorial.

Those left to cherish her memory are her husband, Ellis Collins of Grand Island; her two boys, Braden and Samson Collins of Grand Island; one step-daughter, Madilyn Collins of Sarasota, Florida; her twin sister, Deb (Scott) Hawthorne of Central City; her three nephews Matt (fiancé Bobbi Arends), Jon (Brooke) Hawthorne, and Joe (Hannah Hines) Hawthorne; great nephews, Jaxon and Jameson Hawthorne; mother and father-in-law, Lila and Richard Collins; sister-in-law, Sharon Larson and the late Glenn Larson; brother-in-law, Richard and Edie Collins; sister-in-law, the late Darlene (Jeffery) Hill.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Joan and Don Hansen; nephew, Samuel Hawthorne; brother, Gary Hansen; and infant brother, Richard Hansen.

Memorials are suggested to an education fund to be setup for Diane's two boys, or to the Messiah Lutheran Church - Music department.

“ She was my best friend in the whole world. My whole family loved her as well. I will miss her. There is not enough words to describe her as a person. Beautiful inside and out. 2 precious sons who were her life. My heart breaks for her twin sister as well, they were inseparable ! We made a ton of memories, Diane, Deb and myself. Thank you Lord for showing me what it's like to have a best friend who means the world to you. I love you Di. Sue

“ Diane was a wonderful woman who took time for those she encountered. She was a mother who would be there no matter what to support her boys. She will be remembered with a smile and is safe from pain in God's hands. May Ellis, Braden, Samson and anyone who was fortunate enough to have known her you be blessed in the memories of her smile.

“ My heart goes out to Deb and her family and also to Ellis and their boys. She was just such a fun loving person to know and I'm glad I had that opportunity. I didn't get to see much of her after she moved to GI. but around highschool age. She always had a smile for you and a beautiful laugh, that just made you laugh with her. She will be missed very much by her family and friends. God be with you all in this trying time. Love to all, Dee Luebbe

“ When at the GI school administration building, I have good memories of Diane's work with the kids who got into trouble with the law. She had a very positive impact on them all and on all of us fortunate to work with her. I also enjoyed her piano playing at church. Such a beautiful lady with so many talents. A real loss to her husband and sons. May they continue to have beautiful memories of her. Alvera Anderson

“ To Ellis & Family--I got to know Diane, while working with her at the Probation Office. She befriended me and was always kind and fair. I loved her. I'm so sorry for your loss. I wish I would have known she had cancer. I have battled cancer myself. I know she loved the Lord. I will look forward to seeing her in her heavenly home someday. You'll be in my prayers.
