Fern was born on December 20, 1922 in Paton, Iowa to Lewis and Lena (Shafer) Fatka. She was born and raised on her parent's farm south of Paton, Iowa. She was baptized and had 2 years of Catechism in the Evangelical Church, where she became a member. She graduated from the Paton consolidated school in May of 1940. She was raised in the Evangelical Faith and attended Western Union College (now Westmar College) in LeMars, Iowa. She registered in a two year training course and graduated in May of 1943. She taught school in Iowa and Naperville, Illinois while her husband attended the Evangelical Theological Seminary in Napersville, Illinois.

Fern was married to J. Russell Mead of Imperial, Nebraska in her parents home at Jefferson, Iowa. She and Russell met at Westmar College where they decided to be partners for life. To this union, were born two daughters, Linda (Chuck) Ryan of Central City, NE and Jolene (Ed) Bantam of Shenandoah, Iowa.

After Russell graduated from seminary, they moved back to Nebraska where Russell attended the University of Nebraska in graduate study for two years. Fern worked in the catalog department of the University Library.

The District superintendent in the Nebraska conference encouraged Russell to take a church. The Bishop assigned Russell and Fern to West Point, Nebraska in 1949. It was a six year pastorate. They continuously served pastorates in the conference to 37 years.

They retired together in 1986 and made their home in Central City, Nebraska. In retirement, Fern made quilts for her daughters and grandchildren. By request, she made a quilt for her sister Nada. She made throw pillows to accompany each quilt using a quilt block design.

Fern is survived by her two daughters, 5 grandchildren, and 7 great grandchildren; one sister – Ruth Harrison of Jefferson, Iowa.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, two sisters- Rachel Klockseim and Nada Estes; three brothers- Howard, Wilbur, and Paul Fatka.

“ When we moved to Wood River with our young family in 1975, Russell and Fern were the first to greet us along with another wonderful lady, June Senseney. Fern was a devoted pastor's wife and a wonderful example for all of us. Our sympathy to her family. Jerry and Bonita Hawley

“ I had the privilege of being Fern's pastor for five years at Central City. Fern was one of my greatest encouragers, and likely because she understood life in the parsonage. She was a wonderful person and great lady who will be missed. We still have a file labeled Fern Mead letters, and I will be going back to reread the contents and express my gratitude to the Lord for her life and her influence on others. In the meantime, our sincere condolences to her family.
