He was born in West Point, Nebraska to the late Herman and Margaret Wiese in 1945. He graduated from Wisner High School in 1964. After continuing his education at Milford Technical College, he enlisted in the Army and spent several years stationed in Germany.

Ron married Diane Smeal of Snyder on March 23, 1968. Upon returning from Germany, they lived in several Nebraska communities, and have called Central City home since 1980.

In recent years, Ron had retired from a long career with the Merrick County Highway Department. Ron and Diane were spending their retirement together enjoying travel with their camper. Ron liked to play golf and since retiring was able to increase his time at Valley View. Other than golf, his hobbies were helping with building renovations and creating new ways to please people with his construction skills.

He was a faithful and contributing member of St. Michael's Catholic Church and a member of the Central City Legion Club. Every summer he looked forward to driving his '64 Ford in the NRCA weekend, reliving "The Good Life".

He is survived by his wife, Diane, of Central City and two daughters; Rochelle Wiese of Las Vegas, RyAnne Rowell and her husband, Jeff Rowell, of Omaha. Ron will also be remembered by many nieces and nephews. Ron was preceded in death by his brother, Richard Wiese (2000) and sister, Diane Hansen (2009).

The family wishes to thank everyone for their kind wishes and support. We are so blessed to have family and friends like you.
