“ How I wish I could attend your father's funeral so I could visit with a family I dearly love. Your mother and father have been and will always be two people I treasure and admire...for their faith, their kindness, the family they raised, their support of the school and especially the arts.

One of my favorite memories occurred when I was at their home for supper. Joyce was showing me the scrapbooks that she had made for each of you four children. She was sitting next to me explaining each picture, and Bill was standing behind her commenting too. Once when I looked up at Bill, he was leaning down and gently kissing Joyce on the head. Such a moment of tender, unconditional love I witnessed! I have so many great memories of your family, but that one moment is forever kept in my heart as example of what years of love and friendship and commitment looks like.

I thank God I had each of you children in my life, and I thank God I had role models like

Bill and Joyce to guide me. I send my love, my sympathy, and my hope that we all get to be reunited in heaven someday. I love and miss you all.

XOXOXOXO
