“ We are so sorry of your loss. She was a very special feisty lady. Our memories are many. Horse shows, trail rides (including one to North Platte..). Many platte river meetings that were more fun than us actually getting anything done. Her smile was always there for us all. Love and Prayers

“ Dear Great Aunt Aggie, my favorite memories of her are from when I was a small child. We would drive from Michigan to Nebraska, always arriving at their house in the middle of the night somehow, and she would run to the car, laughing, and grabbing into a hug so big my eyes bugged out. RIP ❤️

“ When I came to Nebraska when I was 13 to start over with this beautiful family that I love so much, I remember the first time I met Grandma. She was home babysitting Shauna and Cord (who had fallen asleep on the floor with a car in hand, tank top on, and just a diaper) and greeted us at the door as we arrived. Back then I wasn't sure about anything, moving to a state I had never been in with a family I didn't remember much at the time, but when we came into the house and I met her for the first time she smiled so big and hugged me and told me to call her Grandma. If this doesn't tell you something about how welcoming and loving and special she was, well I'm not sure what will. Grandma always showed her love for her kids, grand kids, great grandkids, and everyone in between. Everyone was welcome to grandma's house and boy the food was to die for! She was the best at having all the small things that just make a grandma the best. Hugs, kisses, laughs, ice cream in the freezer, grapes for shauna, m&ms for everyone, home made frosted graham crackers for dad, sauerkraut for mom when she craved it after cord was born, pies for tiffanie, Apple dessert for Tony, mashed potatoes for me and phase ten every Sunday and holiday! I could go on forever absolutely about how much this woman meant to me but I'll leave it at that. Grandma, we love you. <3
