Bonnie Jean was born on May 12, 1946 to Leo Scott and Lillie (Hilligas) Johns in O'Neil, Nebraska. Bonnie grew up in O'Neil, and her family would eventually move to Lincoln where she attended Lincoln Northeast High School. While living in Lincoln, Bonnie met Harvey Sieck. Then on March 26, 1965 Harvey and Bonnie would get married in Lincoln. They then moved to Osceola for a few years and eventually to Stromsburg where they would spend the next 43 years. Harvey and Bonnie were married for 52 years and they meant everything to one another. While living in Stromsburg, Bonnie worked for Midwest Covenant Homes until her retirement in May of 2017.

Bonnie previously attended the Catholic Church in Osceola, and currently was attending the United Methodist Church in Stromsburg.

Those left to cherish her memory are her husband – Harvey of Stromsburg; her children – Roger (Teresa) Sieck of Sioux Falls, SD, Jeanne (Tim) Koehn of Grand Island, Connie (Pepper) David of Topeka, KS, and Steven (Tracey) Sieck of York; her siblings – John (Carol) Johns, Joseph (Terrill) Johns, Julie (Andy) Young, Jennifer (Terry) Bloom, and Jeff (Beth) Johns; 15 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

“ When retiring to Stromsburg and revisiting the familiar halls of Midwest Covenant Home, it was a delight to see Bonnie's familiar face at the door of the laundry. Evidently although many things had changed, there was still the need for a laundry, and Bonnie was still there doing her job.

In that moment of recognition her smile told me that she knew I appreciated her, and I knew that she knew it. Isn't it amazing how much a smile can convey?

If someone were to ask me what the secret of the success of Covenant Home might be, I would have an immediate answer: "workers like Bonnie Sieck." -Bob Greenwall

“ Bonnie was such a beautiful spirit. She built a wonderful life and enjoyed every bit of it. She was a tireless worker, a wonderful daughter, a loving mother and a fun and happy companion to her husband, Harvey. I have always admired her grit! I remember fondly the easy, free life we shared as cousins growing up. God Bless the family. We will all miss her.

“ I worked with Bonnie for many years at MCH! This is where we became friends!! Not the kind of friends that saw each other ever day but friends that meant if she or I needed anything we were there for each other!!! She was a hard worker and a joy to work with! The last time we were together was at Scott and Teri Larson's was spent talking about memories, family and camping!! Will miss her big smile and hugs! My heart is broken for the family and to them all I can say is to take each day one at a time! It will be hard but time does heal the pain! I will never forget her, rest in peace dear friend!!
