Carol was born on December 23, 1950 at Fullerton, Nebraska. She was the daughter of John William and Phyllis Arlene (Land) Polzkill. Carol joined her big brother Billy Dean, later had three more brothers, Delbert Eugene, Ricky Lee, and Douglas William. Carol attended grade school in Central City, Nebraska. Her high school years were at Marquette, Nebraska and graduated in 1969. After graduation, she attended business school.

In her adult years, she lived in Central City, Grand Island, Chapman, Gothenburg, Alma, and Byron, Nebraska. She lived a short time in Colorado. Her love for cooking lead to her desired employment. Cooking in several restaurants, at a school in Colorado before having her own establishment, The Depot Café and Lounge, at Alma, Nebraska.

It was at Alma where she met the love of her life, Galen (Peanuts) Volesky, whom she married on March 17, 2010 at Lincoln, Nebraska.

Carol's spare time was spent watching cooking shows on TV, looking for new recipes, fishing and listening to country music. Her favorite artists were Johnny Cash, Toby Keith, and Alan Jackson.

Those left to cherish her memory are her husband, Peanuts; brothers, Bill (Gloria) Polzkill and Rick (Margaret) Polzkill; sister-in-law, Debbie Miller; brother-in-law, Robert (Squirt) Volesky; nieces, Elizabeth (Michael) Getrost and Jessica Polzkill; nephews, Jonathon Polzkill, Brady Wilson, and Brandon (Crystal) Volesky; and several great nieces and nephews and her beloved furry friend Susie.

Those preceding in her death were her parents, John and Phyllis; brothers, Delbert and Doug; and her furry friend Bear.
