

Cassandra L. Mitchell

September 6, 1991 - May 31, 2018

Cassandra Lynne Mitchell, 26, of Central City, Nebraska passed away Thursday, May 31, 2018 at CHI St. Francis Medical Center in Grand Island, Nebraska. Funeral services will be Tuesday, June 5, 2018 at 10:30 a.m. at Solt-Wagner Funeral Home in Central City with Rev. officiating. Visitation will be Monday, June 4, 2018 from 5 to 7 p.m. at the funeral home. Burial will be in the Chapman Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorials are suggested to the family and condolences can be sent to the family at www.soltwagnerfuneral.com.

Cassie was born on September 6, 1991 in Grand Island, Nebraska to Ed and DeeDee (Barton) Mitchell. She grew up in Phillips, Nebraska and attended Aurora Public Schools graduating in 2010. She lived in Sioux City for a brief period as she attended Morningside College.

Cassie was loved by many, but none more than her family. She cherished her family, especially her three nieces. She also enjoyed hanging out with her cousins, aka "cousin time". Cassie's friends were very very important to her.

Words cannot describe Cassie's passions; her laughter, her smile, she loved deeply with all her heart and soul! From her toddler years, Cassie was stubborn, intensely loyal, an adventurer, and sassy with an attitude that we all loved. She loved her cats. She also had a love for hats, Monopoly, Yatzee, and Knock Poker, and toe socks. She was an avid Mustang car lover, owning three including her 1966. At such a young age, she had not begun to accomplish her many goals in life....

She is survived by her mother and stepfather - DeeDee and Montie (Barton) Pirnie of Central City, NE; her father Ed Mitchell of Minnesota ; one sister- Billie and Bob Condy of Grand Island, NE; one brother- Chad Lammermann of Marquette, NE ; three nieces – Charlee and Kaylee of Grand Island, NE and Alauna of Marquette, NE; grandmother- Nina Mitchell of Wellsville, NY; aunts, uncles, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by grandparents- Jack and Merris Barton and Ernie Mitchell.

“ I walked into the Grandview and was ready to have myself a beverage and it was there that I first heard that you had died.....and inside, I shed a tear. Outside I was pretty sullen too. However long the initial grief lasted, I can't recall, but I do know this following fact. Although it wasn't instantaneous, I did find reason to smile that night.....I was sad about the fact that I would never see your bright and shining face again. About how I would never hear that voice of encouragement ever again on my side of heaven. That voice of encouragement, that always seemed to let me know that, even in my weirdness and oddity, I was accepted by you.....THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR THAT FRIEND.....I am so glad I was worthy and lucky enough, even in my oddity and strangeness, to be called your friend. When I walked into the Grandview the other day and heard that you had died, I couldn't make sense of it. Here you were, looking positive and excited about life and work and a new job one day, and the next day you weren't here. It's taken me a little bit to process that, and I reckon it will take me a bit more.....Know this dear friend.....You will be missed.....At work, I will miss you.....At G-view, we have and will continue to miss you.....Thank you for being who you are, and Thank you for showing love to other people for who they are.....Strange as they may be.....See you in heaven someday kiddo.....LOVE YOU LOTS.

YOUR FRIEND,
BENNETT

“ My dearest niece Cassie, who gave the best hugs, who I did not see often enough, will be sorely missed. She looked so much like my daughters. She will make a wonderful angel. Heaven is lucky to receive her. My thoughts and love go to her Mother, Sister and Brother and extended family as it's impossible to patch the hole that her passing has left. Love you, Aunt Fil, Alexis and Lauren
