

Cleo B. Rogers

April 14, 1926 - May 23, 2013

Cleo B. Rogers, 87, of Central City, died Thursday, May 23, 2013 at Litzenberg Long Term Care in Central City. Cleo's wishes were to be cremated and services will take place at a later date in Janesville, Wisconsin. Wagner Funeral Home in Central City is assisting the family. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.wagnerfuneral.com. Memorials are suggested to donor's choice.

Cleo was born on April 14, 1926 to Buford and Meryl (Jackson) Rogers in Sauk County, LaValle Township, Wisconsin. He grew up on a family farm outside Wonewoc, Wisconsin and attended Wonewoc schools.

He entered the United States Army on July 26, 1945 and was honorably discharged on November 20, 1946. Cleo enjoyed reading, watching Nascar races, and enjoyed wildlife.

He is survived by one son- Gene Rogers of Cedar Rapids, IA, one daughter and son-in-law, Joan and Leonel Luna of Grand Island, NE, three grandchildren- Judy Jantz; Janet Wilkenson; and Jaime Johnson, six great grandchildren- Adam and James Jantz; Kaylee and Nathan Mason; Joseph Johnson; and Emily Franck; one sister and brother-in-law, Joyce and Boyd Severson of Janesville, WI; nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by two sisters- Evelyn Jacob and Rhea Schwartz;

one brother- Harlan Rogers