“ I have so many great memories with Dave. From playing basketball in our cowboy boots after staying up all night, singing along to Hank Williams Jr songs, to driving fast on country roads, we spent countless hours together having fun and acting goofy. Once I mentioned thinking about driving up to Montana and then Yellowstone. Dave was always up for an adventure, so off we went. We each had Datsun 4X4 King Cab pickups, and this was before cell phones were everywhere so we talked on our CB radios. We drove up through South Dakota and Mount Rushmore. Into Montana and toward Helena, MT. When we were near, we found a road up the mountain and took it. Higher and higher - suddenly it snowed on us, a lot. Was a hoot driving around in it. We headed south to Yellowstone. Slept in our trucks by the Yellowstone river outside Livingston, MT. We drove through Yellowstone and out to Jackson Hole. We went to the Million Dollar Saloon and sat on the saddles and sipped a beer. We decided to go horseback riding but missed the turn and had to turn around. I made the 180 turn but when Dave made his turn, a car hit him on the left front wheel. We couldn't find a tie rod anywhere, so we drove to Salt Lake City. We slept in my truck in a church parking lot because we didn't want to pay for a room. On the way back to Jackson Hole, I had an accident. We got the part to Jackson, repaired his truck and we were off. I waved good bye to him in Cheyenne, I went South and he went East. Sure saw some country and had fun.

My sincere condolences to the family. Sending my prayers to you.

“ To David’s parents and family, we are very sad and in shock about David. First memories are of his parents coming to our house with David and Douglas maybe 3 and 5 years old, in winter coats that were brown and fuzzy, we called them little bears, they were so cute. We can’t forget sister Joann, she and Sheila would play together to get away from the “Boys”. They played with our kids of same age and we watched them grow up with the years going so fast to this day when it feels like the world just stopped. David, we pray you are walking with God and being blessed every day, He loves you more than any of us ever could.
