“ We weren't sure who the nice man was that we enjoyed laughing with while eating at the Riverfront Bar and Grill on Hiway 281 near Grand Island. All we knew is that he worked there and was fun to talk to. We went tonight as we hadn't been there for a couple months and asked the young gal working if the nice man was still working there as we didn't see him. We soon would learn that the nice man was David Schocke. She said that he had passed away. We were shocked and saddened. We will sure miss him when we eat there again. He worked hard and made our eating there fun. Wish we could of told him how much we enjoyed his company.
