Debra Lynn was born on January 30, 1956 in Central City to Gerald D. and Jacquelyn L. (Eastwood) Shull. Debra grew up in the Palmer area and graduated from Palmer High School in 1974. On August 7, 1974 Debra married Thad Blodgett at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Central City. Following their marriage, she would graduate from Mary Lanning School of Nursing in Hastings in 1977. In 1978, she gave birth to their first son, Clifford, followed by their second son, Gregory in 1981. Debra and Thad made their home in Hastings, where she was a registered nurse at Mary Lanning Hospital. They remained there until 1996. She was a very passionate and caring nurse even after her health no longer allowed her to work. The family then moved to Ft. Dodge, Iowa for seven years, and in 2003 an opportunity to own and operate Woody's Bar and Restaurant in Central City presented itself, so they moved back. Even with her health not being great, she was still a loving caregiver, as she took care of her mother, mother-in-law, sister-in-law, and many other family members. She was born to be a nurse, and caretaker. She was always worried about others before herself. She also enjoyed getting to be Mrs. Santa Claus every year, but her greatest love of all was taking care of her family and especially her six grandchildren. She loved them all as much as she could, and they loved her the same.

Debra was a member of St. Michael's Catholic Church in Central City, Palmer Legion Auxiliary, and several Fibromyalgia support groups.

Those left to cherish her memory are her husband, Thad of Central City, her sons; Clifford (Julie) Blodgett of Kansas City, MO and Gregory (Michele) Blodgett of Lincoln, her sister; Dianne (Albert) Benaivdz of Grand Island, and her six grandchildren; Izah, Jacob, Declan, Robert "Wally", Courtney and Ronan.

She was preceded in death by her parents, grandparents, and mother and father-in-law.

“ It seems like I and my family have know Deb and Thad, as well as the boys, Clifford and Greg all of our lives. Deb and I worked together at Mary Lanning, sometimes talking for hours in the parking lot after work, about anything and everything. Two of our kids were born a week apart. Our husbands fished together nearly every weekend. I don't know how many meals we ate at each others homes. We took quick weekend trips to concerts You guys helped me so much after Monte died. I count Deb as one of my BFFs of all time! And Thad too! My heart just feels broken again, knowing she is gone. All my sympathy and love to Thad, Greg, and Clifford, as well as their families.
