Anne was born Dolores Anne Bernard at the Providence Hospital in Detroit, Michigan on July 18, 1931. Her father Albert Raymond Bernard was working there but soon returned to Jefferson, South Dakota, where he and Anne's mother Bernice Mackenzie were originally from. When Anne was only a few years old her parents left Jefferson and moved to Los Angeles, California, where she lived for most of her life before coming to Central City about 25 or so years ago. During her trip to California she was baptized in the Mission Dolores,. She went to Dorsey High School in Los Angeles and then earned her degree in nursing at the Bishop Johnson College of Nursing where she graduated as a Registered Nurse. She then received her bachelor's degree in nursing from the University of Southern California, and then worked for the Los Angeles Board of Education in 1953-54.

She was married in 1955 to Clifford Vincent Stadler at the Mission Dolores Basilica, the oldest surviving structure in San Francisco. Later that year she gave birth to her son, Andrew Vincent Stadler. The family lived happily together in Temple City, Pasadena, and San Marino, California. Her career continued as a substitute school nurse with the Pasadena Board of Education. After that she worked for two years as the Registered Nurse at the Santa Anita Racetrack, then for 10 years as Registered Nurse with the Los Angeles Dodgers at Dodgers Stadium in Los Angeles.

Her many affiliations included being in the Beta Theta Chi Sorority, she was a life member of the Order of Eastern Star, Cofounder of VIMS (Volunteers in Multiple Sclerosis) in Pasadena, California, member of the Pasadena Assistance League, past President of the Temple City Juniors Women's Club, past President of the Whittier College Women's Auxiliary, past President of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan Women's Auxiliary, and member of PEO Chapter AB (Central City, NE).

Together with her husband Clifford they were members of the California Trucking Association, and enjoyed many trips and conventions in fun locations with their good friends from this association.

Travel was one of her passions, and Anne traveled extensively in a professional capacity by leading groups of doctors and nurses to visit hospitals and interchange with health care professionals around the world. Her pleasure travel took her to every continent and most countries of the world. She visited Brazil many times and enjoyed spending long visits with her extended family there.

One of Anne's other hobbies was fixing up, remodeling, and redecorating homes. Over the years she has fixed up over 30 properties in California, Nebraska and Brazil.

She loved animals. Peaches and Precious were two of her favorite cats, now her pets are two Siamese cats Charlie and Hairy.

Anne is survived by her son Andrew and his wife Elizabeth, who live in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, her brother Boyd Bernard and wife Patty of Columbus, Montana, nephews Daniel and Derreck Bernard, wife Karen and their two daughters Lindsey and Hailey, of Los Angeles, California.

While Anne loved California, she often said her return to her Midwestern roots and move to Central City, Nebraska over 25 years ago was one of the best things she ever did.

“ I loved having Anne as an occasional neighbor in Wrightwood, when she was up during the summer. She was a very fun person, and brightened the day for everyone that she was round. I will miss her.

“ Anne was a delightful, gracious, charming, and creative individual with her Victorian décor. I have fond memories spending some time with her a number of places. I have not seen her since I began living in Omaha about 11 years ago. She was unforgettable. You have my deepest sympathy.

Sincerely,

Gloria Dinsdale

“ In addition to the wonderful memories I have of sharing so many family events and conversations with Anne, I think I will best remember her zest for life and adventure. It always seemed that she greeted each day with enthusiasm no matter if it was just another ordinary day. She embraced all the things about life in Nebraska, like drives through the country with my father, hanging out on the porch at the lake watching the sunset, or meeting up with my sister Amy and her husband for asparagus hunting. I will cherish the times we spent together, and will miss her very much.

Andy I am so sorry for your loss.

In loving memory,
Janet Covin

As one of her son Andy's best friends for 47 years, I was privileged to know and love Annie for her goodness and joy of life. Her smile and laughter will always be in the Ingrams family memories forever, and I smile now thinking of her being reunited with Cliff and her good friend Gabriella, my mom. Love you always, Annie.

“ Oh what a wonderful time we had celebrating Anne's 85th Birthday. (She didn't tell her age.) What a surprise it was for her. I picked her up and she didn't know what was in store. One by one we added friends and had the most fabulous time traveling around the countryside...stopping at different places. I'll just say Anne didn't get home until about 11:30 that night!

Anne was a one of a kind...a mentor to many, a dear P.E.O sister and a friend. Central City was blessed when she decided to come live here. We hate to see her go but I'm sure if we look to the heaven's....way up high there will be a big bright shining star looking back at us because you know Anne always liked things that shined!

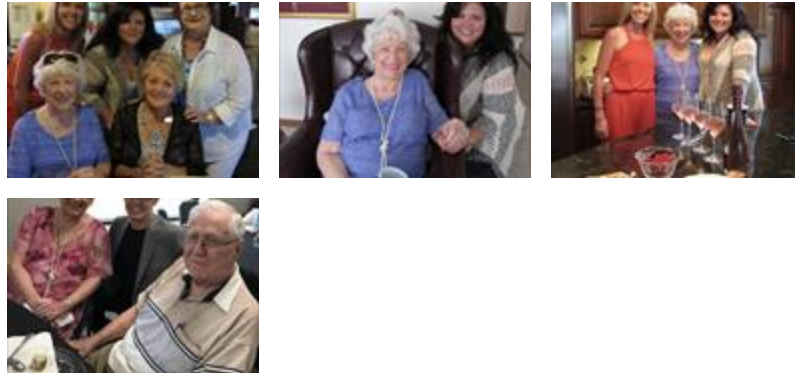

Thank you for letting us share your mother. She was a wonderful woman. I'm so sorry for your loss but I hope you have some comfort by knowing so many people loved her here in Central City. Keeping you in my thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.

*Sincerely,
Ann Herbig*
