“ My family and cousins got together recently to spend some time with my Aunt Doris. She brought out her dollies for us to look at, and told us we each can have 3. But how can you just decide on which three to take. So I hid mine, and when she asked me how many I got.. quietly I said 3 times 3. She asked to see which ones I took. I showed her and she said " well, these 3 could be call a set, and these two look alike.. so I guess you got 3"... I love my Aunt Doris and I'm really going to miss her.

“ So many memories from my childhood. I loved listening to Uncle Roger sing and Aunt Doris playing the piano or organ at the Baptist Church. Family reunions and quick trips for ice cream in the evenings to the Dairy Inn! Such a strong, hardworking and courageous woman. You could tell she loved our Lord and Savior deeply and what a reunion in heaven is going on right now! My deepest sympathy to all of you!! With love, Laurie (Hanquist) Bankson 🙏😊❤️

“ I have always known Aunt Doris was one remarkable person. When our brother Lyndon was born, my sister Sherri and myself went to stay at Roger and Doris's home for a few days. While we were there, Doris sewed darling matching pink gingham dresses for us complete with embroidery work on them. So not only was she watching her own 5 kids, plus us two, she somehow found time to sew cute little dresses for us!! ❤️ Leanne (Keyes) Gustafson
