

Evelyn E. Erickson

December 23, 1927 - February 19, 2026

Evelyn Erickson, born December 23, 1927, in Thurston County, Nebraska, was called home to be with her Lord on Thursday, February 19, 2026.

Funeral Services will be held on Monday, February 23, 2026 at 1:30 pm at Solt-Wagner Funeral Home in Central City, Nebraska. Time of Fellowship will be held at the Solt-Wagner Community Room following the funeral service. Visitation at 1 pm. Interment will be at the Mamre Evangelical Free Church Cemetery near Marquette at 3 p.m.

Memorials can be made to High Prairie Community Church, Polk, Nebraska (www.hpccpolk.com) or Back to the Bible in Lincoln, Nebraska (www.backtothebible.org); condolences to the family at www.soltwagnerfuneral.com.

Evelyn spent the early part of her life in the Marquette area and later made Lincoln her home for many years as a longtime member of the Back to the Bible Broadcast family, serving faithfully for more than 35 years. She eventually retired in Central City.

Evelyn enjoyed many hobbies, especially reading and crafts, and keeping in touch with her family.

She is survived by two nieces: Sue Nissen and her husband Jeff, and their sons Benjamin (wife Jordan, children Eve and Paul), Timothy (wife Aubry, children James and Henry), and Caleb; and Becky Rock and her husband LeRoy, and their sons Eric (wife Angie, daughter Nettie) and Kevin.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Edoff and Ruth Erickson, and her brothers Donald, Edward (wife Phyllis), and Norman.

Evelyn's life stands as a testimony to faithful service, steadfast belief, and a heart devoted to Christ.

“ We will greatly miss our Auntie. She was a wonderful inspiration to David and I for her kindness to all and her love for God. One of my favorite things was when she would tease David about trying to behave. She would always say she would try but it would be hard. I then they both would giggle like little kids.
