Frank was born on June 19, 1939 to Charles and Jonnie (McHenry) Miller in Clarks. He grew up in the Clarks area. In 1952 his father passed away, and he began working on his family farm. He then began driving truck and drove for several companies over the years, including Seward Trucking and BMF Trucking, as well as helping several local farmers. He drove truck until 2021, when he had a heart attack and was forced to retire.

Frank was united in marriage to Joan Eggli on March 31, 2000, and they remained married until her death in 2010.

In his free time, Frank enjoyed doing yardwork and visiting with people at the local coffee shops.

Those left to cherish his memory, are his children, Priscilla Miller of Broken Bow, Patricia (Bryan) Sisson of Ainsworth, and Dee (Chris) Miller of Litchfield; his stepchildren, Becky (Jon) Paddock of Central City, Darrell (Mickey) Eggli of Aurora, and Kenny Eggli of Central City; his brother, Jim "Benny" Miller of Central City; 16 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Joan; his infant daughter, Theresa Miller, step-daughter, Kristi Eggli, and an infant grandson.

“ Frank was a kind and generous man...always helping others and expecting nothing in return. He was always happy and loved to joke and make people laugh. He usually had 2 cigarettes between his lips...1 lit and the other waiting to be lit. He loved orange slices. So many happy memories of him. He will be missed.
