Genevive was born on July 27, 1930 to Henry and Rosa (Lubes) Steinke in Cairo, Nebraska. Jenny grew up in Clarks and Central City, graduating from Central City High School in 1948. She remained in the Clarks and Central City area working at Woody's Café, Farmer's Coop – Clark's office, and Bessy's Café. On February 20, 1952 David "Mike" Harris and Genevive Steinke were united in marriage in North Platte. Jenny then helped Mike at the Central City Cemetery as well as working at Litzenberg Hospital in the kitchen.

She enjoyed bowling in her younger years, and then became an avid golfer later in life, being a member of Riverside Golf Course for many years. She enjoyed traveling, especially her trip to Las Vegas with her friends and her Reno road trip. Getting to go to Europe with Charlene, and traveling with her daughters, sister, and granddaughters were definitely the highlights of her travels. She loved to do crafts, have coffee with the girls, and play cards; especially pinochle, pitch, and tripoli. She was a marvel at getting whole meals on the table right on time for supper, or holidays. She cherished every moment she got to spend with her family, especially her children, and grandchildren.

Jenny was a member of the Lion's Club, Pitch Club, Pinochle Club, Coffee "Klatch" aka Town and Country Craft Club, but most importantly was her faith and memberships to St. Michael's Catholic Church in Central City and St. Peter's Catholic Church in Clarks as well being a member of their Alter society's.

Those left to cherish her memory are her children; Charlene Wobig of Lincoln, Jim (Nance) Harris, Lincoln, Claire Jo Longly of Fullerton, Robbie (Fred) McHargue of Largo, FL, and Mickey (Darrell) Eggli of Aurora; her sister-in-law; Arlene Steinke; brother-in-law; Bob Bannister; 10 grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband; parents; 7 sisters; 4 brothers; 2 grandchildren; 1 son-in-law; 2 sisters-in-law; and 3 brothers-in-law.

“ There's little one can say & little one can do, but want you to know my heart is saddened at Jenny's passing. She was a part of our family as well & all you kids, as we watched you grow up. A comfort of mine is knowing the card table is now full with our family members playing their favorite card games. Maybe poker & maybe not..! Ruthe
