“ All my prayers for my cousin's family and dear friends. I found George on Facebook a couple of years ago. It was so awesome talking to him on the phone all the time. Talking about his mom and dad and my mommy Mable his mom's sister. George was like a big brother to me when a was little. I thought he was something. He called me the night before I got married. Told me he married the woman of his dreams, and love her so much. I will miss him so much. Love George with all my heart. Praying! !!

“ George was not only my brother, he was also my best friend and confidant. There was never a week that went by that we did not talk on the phone and text each other. He was thoughtful, kind, and had a great sense of humor. He was extremely proud of his family and could not do enough for them. He possessed a strong Christian faith and that is comforting to us all. We shall all see him again, and other loved ones and dear friends in Heaven.
