

Georgia "Anne" Klone

June 13, 1945 - September 22, 2020

Georgia Anne Klone, 75, of Central City, Nebraska, died Tuesday, September 22, 2020 at CHI-St. Francis Medical Center in Grand Island. Funeral Services will be held at Pierce Chapel United Methodist Church near Clarks on Saturday, September 26, 2020 at 10 a.m. with Pastor Nancy Spearow and Pastor Jim Parker officiating. Visitation will be Friday, September 25th from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. at Solt-Wagner Funeral Home in Central City. Burial will be in the Bureau Cemetery by Pierce Chapel near Clarks.

Memorials are suggested to the family to be designated at a later time. Condolences can be sent to the family at www.soltwagnerfuneral.com.

Anne was born June 13, 1945 to Donald and Ethel (Burger) Grafe in Central City. Anne attended school at District 15 and 33 and graduated from Central City High School in 1964. After graduation she attended York College. Anne would work as a bank teller in Bradshaw and later as a CNA at Litzenberg Long Term Care in Central City. She then went to work as a teller for Central Bank and worked there for 40 years. Anne never moved completely into retirement, spending her last 10 years with the bank working part-time.

Anne was a member of the Pierce Chapel United Methodist Church and attended a bible study group at Heartland Evangelical Free Church. Anne had a knack for decorating and was an excellent organizer. She loved her home, taking great pride in it by keeping an immaculate lawn. Anne had a great love for her family, especially for her grandchildren. She cherished her time spent with them.

Those left to cherish her memory are her daughter, Heather and Roger Thornton of Grand Island; her son, Heath Klone of Central City; and her grandchildren, Samantha, Savannah, and Seth Thornton.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her siblings, Dan Grafe and Jane Hayden; her granddaughter, Alexis; and her fiancé, Richard Johnson.

It is recommended that face mask be worn during the funeral service.
