Condolences may be sent to the family at www.soltwagnerfuneral.com.

Imogene was born at home on the family farm on June 12, 1940 to Clarence & May Sylvia (Dahl) Anderson. She was an only child who dearly loved spending time with her father, helping on the farm by milking cows, tending chickens, and doing whatever needed to be done, whether outdoors or in the house alongside her mother. Those early years shaped her strong work ethic, sense of responsibility, and lifelong devotion to caring for others.

Raised with strong values of hard work and service, she attended a country school located a quarter mile from her home. She later graduated from Fedora High School in 1958 and went on to attend and graduate from Universal Trade School in Omaha, laying the foundation for a life marked by dedication and capability.

From a very early age, Imogene was a caretaker to her grandparents and other family members, a role that shaped her life and reflected her generous spirit. She continued caring for family and friends throughout her lifetime, opening her home and heart to those in need. Imogene lovingly cared for her mother, who lived with her and Larry for thirty years, and also cared for her mother-in-law during the final three years of her life-quiet acts of devotion that defined her character.

Imogene was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, daughter and friend whose life was rooted in family, faith, and service. She and Larry were blessed with three daughters and one son, whom they loved and doted on deeply, always making each child feel as though they were the favorite.

Imogene treated everyone who entered her home as family. Though she was an only child, she built and cherished a large family of relatives, friends and loved ones. She was known for her warmth and affection - always offering a hug, whether you wanted one or not - and for making people feel welcomed, valued, and at home.

After turning down a position with the FBI in Washington D.C., Imogene accepted a job with Mutual of Omaha. While living and working in Omaha, she met the love of her life, Larry Roscoe. They were married on October 9, 1960, at First Lutheran Church in Artesian, South Dakota, where Imogene was also baptized and confirmed - a place that held deep significance throughout her life.

Together, Imogene and Larry shared many years living in Omaha, Central City, and Fedora, South Dakota, before returning to Central City, Nebraska, in 1978, where she lived for the remainder of her life. After moving back, Imogene, Larry and their family became members of Grace Lutheran Church, where she was very actively involved.

Upon returning to Central City, Imogene worked at First Federal York and Bill's Volume Sales before retiring in 1990 to care for her grandchildren, a role she cherished deeply.

Larry and Imogene also opened their hearts and home as foster parents to Karen, caring for her until she was adopted-an enduring reflection of their compassion.

Imogene especially enjoyed time spent in the kitchen with her grandchildren, baking her beloved sour cream chocolate cake, sugar cookies, and lefse, creating memories that will be treasured for generations. She could also be found cheering on and supporting her children and grandchildren in the various activities that they were involved with. Something she greatly treasured.

At the end of Imogene's life, she courageously battled dementia, yet she never lost the ability to recognize her loving husband and devoted caretaker, Larry. She was happiest when he was by her side - and he always was, faithfully, patiently, and lovingly, until the very end.

She is survived by her beloved husband, Larry Roscoe, her children Lynn (Tom) Pickrel, Lori Hall, Todd (Amy) Roscoe, and Lisa (Sean) Wagner; her grandchildren Lee Pickrel, Kyla (John) Brown, Kinsey Hall (Tom Bowen), Ross (Kaleigh) Wagner, Karlee Hall, Will (Zoe) Wagner, Claire Roscoe, and Tenison Roscoe; and great-grandchildren Leah Plooy, Reid, Gwendolyn, and Havilah Brown, and Kai Hall.

Imogene is lovingly remembered by her special cousin Jeanne Dahl Broderson, who was the sister she never had; her brother- and sister-in-law Wendell and Judy Roscoe; her sister-in-law Ellen Roscoe, and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews. The family extends heartfelt gratitude to her special caregivers, Rhonda and Alyssa, for their compassion and devoted care.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Clarence and Sylvia Anderson; her parents-in-law, Alfred and Clara Roscoe; her grandson Andrew Pickrel; her brother-in-law Corwin Roscoe; and her brother-and sister- in-law Roger and Rosalie Roscoe.

Imogene's life was one of faith, service, and love. Her legacy lives on through the many lives she touched. She will be deeply missed and forever cherished.

“ The Lamberts from Fedora SD extend our sympathy and thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. We were neighbors way back in the 1970 s before Larry and Imogene and kids at that time , lol, moved to Central City. Was sad to see them leave our community, Have many fond memories and stories of life on the farm. I still drive by their old farm up here on a daily basis as i continue to farm at the Lambert farm. In kind regards. Craig Lambert
