

Jack Glen Roach

November 8, 1939 - August 27, 2020

Jack Glen was born in Grand Island to Fred and Clara (Hohman) Roach. He grew up in Grand Island saving dogs, helping farm, tormenting nieces and nephews and getting into mischief with George trying to avoid school. He spent Summers in Burwell on his cousin's ranch. He married LoAnn Muhs on July 18, 1964 in Chapman after the two of them kissed at a barn dance. They raised four amazing children and had lot of fun and adventures. Jack served in the United States Army National Guard from 1957 to 1959. Jack worked at Swift, Peavey, Am-Cam Trucking, and Pella Windows. Working was not his life. He coached softball and baseball, helped with 4-H, made his children and grandchildren weed, mow, clean gutters, and many other tasks. He believed in teaching them the value of hard work and also benefitting from free labor. He enjoyed telling stories, bs-ing, having coffee with friends, giving grandchildren advice, dancing and having a good time. He believe a shot of whiskey, " would cure everything".

Jack was a member of the F.O.E and the Lone Tree Antique Tractor Club.

Those left to cherish his memory are his children; Jill (Pedro) Camargo of Blair, NE, Paige (Kevin) Randa of Verdigre, NE, Dean (Jenny) Roach of Amherst, NE, and Jaci Dettman of Central City, NE; his sister, Joyce Hodtwalker of Columbus, NE; 16 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

He is preceded in death by his wife, LoAnn; his parents; his brothers, Lee, Harold, Bob, Bill, Vern, and Jim; and his sisters, Lucille, Doris, Ruth, Marian, and Dorothy.
