

Jay H. Burbach

May 17, 1957 - June 1, 2013

Jay H. Burbach, 56, of Central City, died Saturday, June 1, 2013, at his home in Central City. Memorial services will be Thursday, June 6, at 11:00 A.M., at Wagner Funeral Home in Central City, with Pastor Donna Carpenter officiating. There will be no visitation. Military rites will be conducted by American Legion Lone Tree Post #6.

Jay was born on May 17, 1957, in Norfolk, NE to Leonard W. and Theresa A. (Conley) Burbach. He grew up in Norfolk, Dodge, and Central City. Jay received his GED during his time in the United States Army.

After he was honorably discharged from the military he went to Schuyler and worked at the packing plant for 10 years. In 1989 he came to the Central City area, working at the Independent Club for nearly 15 years. He worked for a Whitewater hog confinement near St. Edward at the time of his death.

Jay was a member of the F.O.E. - Eagles Club in Central City. He enjoyed horse racing, especially the Kentucky Derby.

Survivors include his mother, Theresa Burbach of Central City, NE, two brothers, Leonard Conley Burbach of Pisgah, IA; and Rich Burbach of Central City, NE, two sisters and a brother-in-law, Nancy and Mel Schaecher of Battle Creek, NE; and Jodi Christensen of Waterloo, NE, four nieces and nephews, and ten great nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father, Leonard Burbach, one brother, Kenneth Burbach, a niece, Lori Schaecher, and a nephew, Larry Schaecher.

Memorials are suggested to the family and condolences may be sent to the funeral home website, www.wagnerfuneral.com.