

JoAnne Escritt

February 26, 1933 - August 6, 2019

JoAnne was born on February 26, 1933 to Bevy and Luella (Williams) Harkness in Atlanta, Nebraska. She grew up in Atlanta, Nebraska and graduated from Loomis High School. After graduation, JoAnne attended Kearney State Teacher's College and obtained her B.S. She then began teaching at Hayes Center, then she taught High School at Orchard High School. JoAnne married Samuel Warren Escritt on May 26, 1956 in Holdrege, Nebraska. In Axtell, she became a CNA at Bethpage Mission, and eventually worked at Bethany Home in Minden. While in Minden, she volunteered at "The Closet" as well as working at the Library. She also did in-home daycare while her children were little. After she retired, she moved to Superior, and eventually made her home in Central City in 1999, where she remained until her death.

JoAnne was a member of the Christian Church in Central City and the First Christian Church of Palmer.

Those left to cherish her memory are her children; Kathy (David) Furby of Amherst, LouAnn (Steve) Bauer of Fremont, Philip Escritt of Central City, Warren (Peggy) Escritt of Bethany, OK, and Cindy Berck of Hastings; her sister- Christine (Arman) Llewellyn of Tooele, UT, 11 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren and one on the way.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, three brothers; Bill, George and John Harkness, and one sister - Doris Zion.

“ JoAnne came from a poor but hard working family.
Her dad was our bus driver and always had a smile on his face
Joanne had to work very hard and was first to work towards and get her college degree
They were a great family with very good manners and always very polite.
Joanne was quiet but with great resolve
A credit to her family, school and community
