“ Me and my wife Maricela Macias have so many beautiful memories of John E Prososki. We will always remember his beautiful smile every time we saw him. John was so nice to me and all my family. We are still in shock that he is no longer here with us on earth. We both truly Believe that God needed another Angel in Heaven with him.

“ To Evelyn and family, this is Chuck and Mary Prososki. Even though we have not spent a lot of time together over the, years you all have been and will be in our hearts, as you are family. We know the passing of John leaves an empty spot in your lives and I have no special words to fix that, but please know that we are, and will continue to lift you all up to the One who can and will give you all comfort - Our Father in Heaven. Mary and I do hold the times we shared over the years, with warmth and fondness in hearts. Please remember you all are family and always will be. Peace and blessings to all of you. Chuck and Mary Prososki.

“ This saddens my heart so much!!! I love John and Evelyn! John was always a bright spot to my day! Always a good and encouraging word! A caring husband and super friend to his friends and a good dad to his friendly son Dewey- I know there are bunches more family that I don't know - but I sure am glad God put John and his sweet lady in our lives! He will be very sadly missed!!
