October 3, 1956 - May 13, 2022

Kenton W. Kuhn, 65, of Central City, died on Friday, May 13, 2022 at Bryan Medical Center – East Campus in Lincoln. A celebration of life service will be held on Saturday, May 21, 2022 from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the Eagle's Club in Central City. Interment will be held at a later date.

Memorials are suggested to the family to be designated at a later time. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.soltwagnerfuneral.com.

Kenton was born on October 3, 1956 in Central City to Gerald and Darlene (Wegner) Kuhn. He grew up in Central City, and graduated from Central City High School in 1974. After graduation, Kenton attended Hastings Community College, and graduated with an Associate's Degree in Masonry. He then moved back to Central City, and began working for the Nebraska Department of Roads out of York. On November 19, 1990 Kenton was united in marriage to Peggy Bridger at the First Christian Church in Central City. Following their marriage, they moved to Axtell, where Kenton continued working for the Nebraska Department of Roads in Holdrege. They then moved to Holdrege until 2017 when Kenton retired, and moved back to Central City.

Kenton enjoyed bowling, playing pool, and golf. His greatest love was getting to spend time with his family. He was a member of Archer Zion United Methodist Church. He was a charter member of Fraternal Order of Eagle's in Central City, as well as a member of the Holdrege Chapter.

Those left to cherish his memory are his 3 sons; Sean (Faithe Nichols) Gaghagen of Grand Island, Steve Gaghagen of Holdrege, and Alex (Kayla) Kuhn of Central City, his sister; Julene (Craig) Nelson of Central City, and his grandchildren; Cohen and Ava Gaghagen, Bryan and Mya Nichols, Zoe, Ella, and Bridger Gaghagen, and Myles Kuhn.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Peggy in 2021; his brother-in-law; Richard Bridger, his sister-in-law; Rhonda Bridger, his nephews; Elliott and Mitchell Nelson, and Chris Bridger, niece; Traci Wolanski, and great-nephews; William Wolanski and Mileck Clifton.
