“ I'm saddened to hear of Larry's passing. I always enjoyed visiting with him at ballgames and track meets; he had a great personality and was always down to earth, even when his athletes were kicking our rears on the track. While I grieve with his family and friends, I am joyful that Larry was able to touch so many lives; he was, truly, one of a kind, and the memories he created will live on with each of us.

“ So many thoughts and memories of Larry came rushing back into me when I got the sad news of Larry's passing. Now that that a few days have passed, each day brings another memory, moment or event with Larry. I'm very fortunate to have had such priceless moments growing up with him, his sisters Linda and Dee and of course his loving parents, Ruby and Paul. For me, Larry was always bigger than Life, making you laugh and shake your head. Whether it was skiing in Colorado as seniors in High School or at football practice or track, he was always the one leading the way and we all followed. Even when he drove the family car through their garage door, his Mom and Dad shook their heads and ended up laughing as we all did. God Bless Larry for I know that someplace in Heaven, there's Larry with a group of Angels, laughing and shaking their heads.

May God Bless Larry's family and all those he taught and coached over the years.

“ *I'm so very sorry to learn of Larry's passing. I'll never forget the dances at the Platt Duetsche in Grand Island, playing ping pong for countless hours in the basement, many dinner parties, and of course all those ball games. Go Huskies! “ What a well-lived life! He has touched so many other lives in his sojourn here--Friend, Co-worker, Coach, Teacher, Neighbor, Fellow Church Member, and, of course, Family. Now we are left to grieve, and to hold up in prayer those left with a huge empty place in their hearts. Imagine the scene as Larry entered Heaven, like a football player jogging off the field--battered, weary, having poured out his all in the game. The Coach greets him, pats him on the back, and says with a smile just for him, "Well done, Larry!"
