“ I received a message this morning of the death of Leroy Sheets retired trooper from Central City, Nebraska. Leroy and his wife Alice treated me like one of their own kids even after he retired in 1984. It was my first time really away from home and I was in my first two years as a police officer in Central City. I have a few memories of working with him.

He did a Santa sighting message on Christmas Eve when he was working night shift over the radio.

It snowed so bad I had to go help get him out of a drift in the middle of Highway 30 in a blizzard.

We were stuck in the old office during that same snow storm and spent most of the shift playing pinball on an old pin ball machine in the garage while we waited for our shifts to end.

Thanksgiving dinner with the Sheets family was just like I was home.

Godspeed Leroy #201, May your reunion with Alice be glorious!

From that skinny(not so much anymore)kid you blessed with kindness more than forty years ago.

I purchased a tree to represent the love, growth, memories, and beauty that my grandfather gave me. May his kind-hearted soul be forever remembered. ❤️

I would also like to share a poem:

A limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says, 'Grieve not for me'.

Remember the best times, The laughter, the song.

The good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.

Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.

Go on with your life, don't worry about falls

I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.

Until the day we're together again.
