Lola Jean was born March 4, 1940 to George E. and Irene E. (Roach) Jerome. Lola spent her childhood in Central City where she graduated from Central City High School in 1958. She married Raymond Duane Hostetler on September 29, 1960 in Omaha, Nebraska and to this union three children were born, Kevin, Cindy and Connie. She later lived in Shelton and Carter Lake, IA. Lola returned to Central City in 1972 where she enjoyed working with Darlene Kuhn at the Dairy Queen. Lola then began her career in social services in Central City, then worked in the office in Grand Island for a few years. She retired in 2000. Lola lived in Merrick Manor for seven years and then moved to Cottonwood Estates until the time of her death.

Lola was a member of the Central City United Methodist Church. She also enjoyed putting puzzles together. Before her stroke she found great enjoyment working in her garden, cooking and crocheting. She especially enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren.

Kimball, NE, Cindy (John) Blaisdell of Colorado Springs, CO and Connie (Garry) Hillmer of Central City; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren with two more on the way.

She was preceded in death by; her parents; her brother, Bill Jerome; and her sister, Joyce Haberer.
