Maggie was born on June 16, 1969 in Superior, Nebraska to Dean & Sandra (Fuller) Rowley. She grew up in Hardy and graduated from Superior High School in 1987. She was a cosmetologist (along with many other talents). She was united in marriage to Brian Larchick on August 18, 1990 in Loup City, Nebraska. The couple enjoyed dancing and recent travels to South Dakota. They had 3 sons and Maggie was a godmother to many other amazing children. Maggie was a member of St. Peter's Catholic Church and JDI (Job's Daughters International). Her hobbies included photography and crocheting, and she loved jewelry.

Those left to cherish her memory include her husband, Brian Larchick of Clarks, NE; sons, Anthony "Tony" Larchick of Grand Island and his fiancé, Larissa of Grand Island, Zachary "Zach" Larchick and his wife, Angel of Pleasanton, and Brody Larchick of Clarks; grandchildren, Spencer, Dace, Sophia, & Tristan; mother, Sandra Rowley of Hardy, NE; sister and brother-in-law, Angela "Angie" and Robert Clark of Ainsworth, NE; brothers and sister-in-law, Mike Rowley of Ainsworth; Rex & Tracey Rowley of Hastings; numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Maggie was preceded in death by her father, Dean Rowley; and her mother-in-law, Delores "Dee" Larchick & father-in-law, Julius "Jim" Larchick.

AS

“ Maggie was an amazing lady! She always greeted you with a smile even if she was having a rough day. She was very particular about her file room, I learned that right away. She was very kind and so much fun to be with at work and outside of work. Her laughter was contagious. I will miss her smile the most. Prayers for comfort and peace to Maggie's family and those close to her. 🙏❤️🙏
