“ I met this beautiful person 3 yrs ago and have thoroughly enjoyed her. She always made me laugh when we played pinochle. God must have decided he wanted her to be home with him in heaven. She is with the loved ones who went on before her. I know we will see her again in heaven. Will miss her and until we meet again. Free of pain! Karen McDowell

“Melvin, My old friend we both know that our GOD is a good GOD who will lead us through the darkest moments of our grief. He knows we are suffering that excruciating pain He endured when His Son hung on the cross for our sins! GOD has given us time to share with each other our frustrations, our joy, our sorrow, our good times, and the bad times so that the Mansion He has prepared for us will continually be equipped with His Whole Armor of Faith, Peace, Salvation, Breast Plate of Righteousness, Truth, and His precious word, through the experiences we have had in the life HE GAVE US.

Now. Marian is enjoying the Sweet and Wonderful time of Everlasting JOY. Our hearts truly ache not having your smiling presence with us, but Our Love and Prayers are with all of your family and may GOD'S Peace Abide within each one that loves you as we did. One day we once again have the hope of being reunited in heaven.

The Bible stands for: Basic Instruction Before Leaving Earth, and you experienced it.

1 Kings 19:9-18.

The phrase “a still, small voice” is from the KJV, and is also translated “a gentle blowing” (NASV), “a gentle whisper” (NIV, NLT), or even “sheer silence” (NRSV), as in the silence after a storm. Whatever it was, it made Elijah come out of the cave, and then God spoke to him.

Why do you think God demonstrated the awesome power of “earth, wind and fire” before the “gentle blowing”? Wait for answers. One of many reasons may be that God is sort of like our parents. He knows when to yell and he knows when to get our attention with a quiet voice. Elijah had been through a lot of dramatic and frightening events, and his spirit was very fragile. God got his attention with stillness.

Do you have any other thoughts about the presence of God in the gentle blowing or whisper? “As a father has compassion on His children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear Him; for He knows how we are formed, He remembers that we are dust.”

Psalms 103:13-14

Quietness is essential to listening. If we are too busy to sit in silence and God's presence, then we are going to have difficulty listening to that still, small voice of God. Set aside time to, wait upon the Lord in silence.

“ Kay & Angie, my heart goes out to you all.....I am at a loss for adequate words to express my sadness for you. I had the blessed opportunity of knowing your mom and I know heaven just received one of the most special angels. You are a reflection of your mom in the way your treat people with respect and empathy. Not to mention the way you make each person feel loved. I am so sorry for your loss. Love you all and I'm here if you need anything ~ Kelly Allen & Family

So sorry to hear of Marian's passing. I have enjoyed bowling with Marian and Mel. We have always had a lot of fun teasing back and forth. I have missed both of you at the bowling alley lately, and will continue to do so. May God bless her soul and give her peace. Mel, I hope to see you sometime again at the bowling alley so we can knock down those green pins. Chuck
