Michael Dean Lempka was born on November 9, 1969 to Michael L. and Julie A. (McPhillips) Lempka in Grand Island. Michael grew up in Central City, then moved to Rifle, Colorado in High School. He graduated from Rifle High School in 1987. Following his graduation he moved back to Central City and began working along side his Dad as an electrician. His Dad taught him everything he knew and Michael would continue the love for trade his whole adult life. Michael has 2 daughters Shawna and Brandi from a previous marriage. They were his world, his everything. In 2010 he met and fell in love with Crystal and her 2 daughters, NovaAnn and Vanessa. In 2011 his son Blake was born. On August 26, 2016 Michael and Crystal married in Wood River in the home they would share as their own, making a crazy loving family of 7.

Michael was always 1st in line to help anyone. To his loving Mom, Julie and Aunt Linda, to a neighbor or a stranger on the road, and of course any stray animal in need. Michael enjoyed working on truck motors, being outdoors, a good country cruise and spending time with his family and friends. He was an animal lover and always had pets that would quickly become one of his kids. Michael always put his heart and pride in everything he did in his life. His passion showed through every project he touched. Michael was a man of honor and always put the needs of his family before his.
