Mildred was born on November 5, 1931 in Arcadia, Nebraska to Owen and Gladys (Creeman) John. She grew up in rural Silver Creek. She met Roger at Havens near Silver Creek. She lived with Roger's family for a few years as Roger farmed. The couple then moved to O'Neill and then back to Central City in 1963. They purchased a farm East of Central City where Mildred remained until moving to Merrick Manor in 2012, then to Cottonwood, and in 2015 to Litzenberg Long Term Care.

Mildred was a member of the United Methodist Church in Central City where she sang in the choir. She was very active in Women's Extension Clubs. She was a seamstress and a 4-H Leader. She was also a great cook and baker. She would often cook for the hired help on the farm.

She is survived by two sons- John Beck of Broomfield, CO; Jerry and Linda

Beck of Central City, NE; one daughter- Charlene Beck of Arvada, CO; six grandchildren- Jason Beck, Jenni Hinkle, Josh Beck, Katie Batenhorst, Casey Beck, and Carrie Beck; nine great grandchildren; one sister- Ramona Hurlburt of Bellevue, WA;

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, her three brothers - Glenn, Darwin, and Dwain John; one sister - Darlene Trueman; and an infant great grandson - Isaac Beck.
