

Millicent L. "Millie" Baack

January 26, 1950 - August 24, 2019

Millie Baack was born on January 26, 1950 in Stromsburg to Robert "Bob" Baack and Joyce Baack. She was preceded in death by her parents.

She grew up in Polk and graduated from Polk High School in 1969. Millie loved watching the Huskers and from the time she moved to St. Johns Good Samaritan Society in Kearney in 2007, she was known to be their #1 fan. She enjoyed putting together puzzles, crocheting and proudly displayed her work throughout the facility. She also kept the pop machine busy with her favorite drink, Dr. Pepper. Millie loved the staff at St. Johns Good Samaritan Society and her family is very grateful for their presence in Millie's life.

Additional survivors include, nieces and nephews, Jeffrey Baack and Tammy Heinrich of Omaha, Tim and Krysta Baack of Omaha, Janet and Naveen Kukreja of Denver, CO, Evan Baack of Omaha, Michelle and Mason Hoffman of Roseland, David and Kelly Zywiec of Central City, and Jennifer Zywiec of Roseland, Alana, John, Curtis and Gabrielle Baack all of Kearney, Hudson Baack of Lincoln, and several great nieces and nephews. Millie is also survived by her aunt Alvertus Jones of Polk and several cousins.
