Nadine was born on November 26, 1930 to Fritz and Pauline (Doncheski) Butt in Central City. She grew up on the farm outside of Central City and graduated from Central City High School in 1949. On May 14, 1950 Nadine was united in marriage to Dale Hilderbrand at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Central City. They made their home in Central City for a few years before moving to Grand Island. While in Grand Island she worked at Bailey's Photography Studios, and later at Econofoods. After raising their boys, they then moved back to Central City.

Nadine was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Central City. She enjoyed baking, bird watching, and water skiing. She also loved when she got to ride with Dale on his motorcycle. Her greatest love was getting to spend time with her family.

Those left to cherish her memory are her husband; Dale Hilderbrand of Central City, her sons; Stacy (Kris) Hilderbrand of St. Paul and Scott (Rhonda) Hilderbrand of Central City, two grandchildren; Rachel and Shaun Hilderbrand and one great-grandchild; Blaz Hilderbrand, and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her siblings; Ernestine Grigsby, Doreen (Ken) Luebbe, Roger Butt, and Richard Butt.

“ *Sending love and hugs to Uncle Dale, Scott and Stacey and their families. I, like my siblings and cousins I'm sure, have so many great memories of Aunt Dinah taking us all out for walks (and that was a lot of kids!) on Sunday afternoons after a great family dinner together. She was so patient and kind. She also made one of best chocolate cakes ever with the chocolate frosting and nuts :) May God hold you all especially close....
Blessings,
