

Nancy Gail Faeh

April 7, 1939 - March 28, 2024

Nancy Gail Faeh, 84, peacefully left this world and passed to her heavenly home on March 28, 2024, at her home in Central City, Nebraska. Celebration of Life services will be Saturday, April 13, 2024, at 3:00 p.m. at the Heartland Evangelical Free Church, with Pastor Nathan Musgrave officiating. There will be no visitation. Memorials can be sent to the Nebraska Christian Schools. Condolences can be sent to the family at www.soltwagnerfuneral.com.

Nancy was born April 7, 1939, to Nelson and Helen (McLean) Teeple in Niagara Falls, New York. The family moved to Dallas, Texas when she was four years old. She spent her childhood years there and later graduated high school.

Nancy attended the University of Texas where she became involved in Intervarsity (a Christian college ministry). Through this ministry, she came to trust Christ as her Savior and committed to following Him for the rest of her life. It was at an Intervarsity winter retreat in Colorado that she met the love of her life, Wendell. She was united in marriage to Wendell Faeh on September 7, 1957. After Wendell's graduation from UNL and a brief stay in Lincoln, they moved to the farm in Central City. Adjusting to country life was a huge change for the big city gal. Wendell and Nancy began their journey of raising five rambunctious kids in a single-wide trailer. During that time, Nancy and Wendell were part of the original Bible study that eventually evolved into what is now Heartland Evangelical Free Church. A large part of Nancy's life was dedicated to music ministry in the church, including playing piano for services, and writing and composing music for children's programs. Her other ministries included Awana, teaching Sunday School, VBS, and Bible studies. She graciously opened her home by hosting countless people and offering others a place to live. In her later years, Nancy and her husband spent numerous winters in Mexico on mission trips and helped with prison ministries locally.

She enjoyed gardening, outdoor activities and entertaining at the lake. Her biggest joy was spending time with family and being happily married for 66 years. Nancy Gail Teeple Faeh was quick to smile, fun, kind, gracious, and loving. She will be missed immensely.

Those left to cherish her memory are her husband Wendell Faeh of Central City; her children Dawn (David) Hanson, Lanny (Jewel) Faeh of Central City, Andy (Lori) Faeh of Central City, Shannon Faeh of San Diego, CA, and Laurie Young (Rick Hill) of Lincoln; her sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law Chris Teeple of Tyler, TX, Ann Elkjer of Kingwood, TX, Denny (Alice) Faeh of Central City, and Larry (Jan) Faeh of Kalispell, MT; and her 15 grandchildren Crystal, Dustin, Daniel, Samantha, Ryan, Truman, Ashley, Anthony, Luke, Audra, Anna, April, Logan, Jessie, and Katie; and 11 great-grandchildren with two on the way.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her mother and father-in-law; her only brother, Don Teeple; her sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Corrine and Dale Crossgrove; her niece, April Sampson; her nephew, Kirk Faeh; brother-in-law, Ed Elkjer; and great-granddaughter, Marigold Faeh.

A special thanks goes out to the primary caregivers who helped care for Nancy in her final years; Precilla Milby, Rhonda Schultz, Shiela Dixon, and memory care staff at Heritage.

“ I just found out TODAY about the new beginnings for Nancy and Wendell, I always have loved Lanny and Jewel and when Greg was in high school, spent so much time at their home in the 80s. I loved to just look at Nancy, her inner beauty AMPLIFIED one of three most beautiful, elegance at ease yet so tender and attuned to others. In all my life attending JV and finishing Awanas meritorious memorization and receiving the award from beloved Dorothy Benson and Ed Ritta. It's no joke that I always looked for Wendell n NANCY she drew me in in spirit, she was monetarily and physically everything that I was not, n I won't lie, I wished even as Jason that I could only be the radiant beauty that Nancy exuded. I have missed you 30 years Lanny n Jewel but know that in the most subtle ways you will all be part of my journey because I loved your parents so much. There is no fear in Love, for ((his,) perfect love casts out fear and I'm not afraid to tell you how I admired them soooo much from afar. Live your dash. Xo. Jason Beck

“ Nancy was a shining light. I always enjoyed visiting with her, Wendell, and the entire family. As a child, I felt their farmhouse was definitely Texas size (it was), and I have happy memories of my visits to Nebraska, family reunions, and events at the lake. Such a gift it was to be with everyone, and experience Faeh hospitality complete with huge buffets and lots of fellowship. May we all learn from her strong example of a Christian life, opening doors of insight, and running a good race. Thank you Nancy for your needed words of wisdom, your patience, and steadfast prayers for us all. I'm sure God has His arms around you.

“ My condolences to the Father's family and all of us who loved her. One summer while I was attending Nebraska Christian HS, the Faehs opened their home to me while I worked at the chrome plating factory before I returned home to Mexico where my parents were missionaries. I stayed in the basement with my own bathroom and a pool table - really cool for a HS kid! They also loaned me their Honda 350 dirt bike too commute to and from work! The Faehs treated me like family and showed the love of Jesus by their actions! So long until we meet again!
