Pat was born August 23, 1946 to Vancil and Nadine Bjorkman in Central City, NE. She grew up and attended Central City Schools. She loved country music and dancing and was a singer in a band when she was younger. Pat enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and her dog Daisy. She had a love for all animals, especially Dutchess and Howdy. She enjoyed lunch dates and shopping trips with her friends to thrift shops and garage sales. She had quite a collection of purses and shoes.

Pat had four children. She worked as an insurance agent in Central City for 38 years. She was a member of the First Christian Church in Central City.

She is survived by two daughters, Yvonne (David) Riley of Clarks, Tammy (Russ) Ridgway of Gretna, her son, Ricky Clauff of Omaha; Six grandchildren, Kevin and Sara Church, Kaden and Molly Clauff, Lakin Kohl and Chase; and one great-grandson, Kayden Morner.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brother; and son, Michael.
