Randall was born on January 27, 1953 to Myron Clifford and Doris Arlene (Chrisman) Ward in Broken Bow, Nebraska. He grew up in the Broken Bow area and graduated from Broken Bow High School. Following his graduation he attended Northeast Community College and received his Associate's Degree. After college he began working for Union Pacific Railroad. While with the railroad he worked in Wyoming until 1985 when he moved back to Nebraska and began driving truck for Union Pacific. He then bought his own truck and began hauling for other trucking companies. Randy then moved to Omaha where he began working with his dad with their dirt company. After a while working with them he realized his calling was driving truck, so he began driving truck for Schultz Trucking Company. He then met Susan in 2007, and moved to Clarks in 2009. While in Clarks he began his own trucking company, Razy's Enterprise, and drove truck his health forced him to retire in 2011.

Randy and Susan were then united in marriage on October 24, 2018.

He had a special knack for engines, and knew the horsepower on every motor that he came across. He also enjoyed cars, driving his motorcycle, fishing, and hunting. He was a member of Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Krakow.

He was preceded in death by his parents.
