Rosalie was born on August 20, 1927 in Shelton, NE to Eugene and Florence Inez (Dubbs) Frazell.

Rosalie graduated from Shelton High School in 1944 and with a Normal Training certificate she taught a rural school for three years. Dick, a veteran of WWII, was stationed in Germany with the Army of Occupation. When he came home they were married on his birthday, November 27, 1946 and moved onto the farm 9 miles north of Central City. Rosalie had been her dad's right hand gal each summer because it was war time and no other help was to be had. It was natural for her to stand beside her husband later on as his helpmate for the 57 years they lived on that farm.

Rosalie had a very big garden each year, and a well kept yard. She enjoyed cooking and loved having a crew of neighbors and friends around her table and preparing a filling meal for them. Some of her other interests included quilting, knitting, crocheting, reading, working on puzzles, writing and learning to use the computer. She was a prolific writer and authored many personal papers. Her grandchildren were the beneficiaries of her “magic lap” - she often knew how to make things better for those she loved.

She was a member of the Fairview Methodist Church and held various offices. Community involvement included The Friendship Club, serving on the Merrick County Extension Board, Merrick County Farm Bureau Board, the Litzenberg Memorial Hospital Board, and was active in the Republican party.

While her children were in school she stayed home. Then she was hired by the U.S. Department of Commerce, which does the Census, and worked as an interviewer on many of their surveys. She was a supervisor for three decennial counts. This was a perfect job for her. When she retired she was awarded their highest honor, the Bronze Medal. Each year one person from each of the 13 districts in the US is selected based on quality of work.

Rosalie and Dick were both licensed pilots. For over thirty years they owned an airplane and enjoyed hours in the air. The couple belonged to Flying Farmers.

Needing a distraction after the passing of her husband, Rosalie started relating her memories of the WWII North Platte Canteen to audiences. She loved telling that bit of Nebraska history. Little did she know that after 70 years, telling the North Platte Canteen story would bring real joy to her senior years. She shared that story with over 70 different groups.

Mrs. Lippincott was preceded in death by her husband, H.R. “Dick” Lippincott, son-in-law Todd Anderson, daughter-in-law Janet Lippincott, her parents and siblings, Delbert (Margaret Ann) Frazell; Lois (Lester) Ramsey; Avis (Anan) Sitorius; and Marjorie (Harry) Pinkerton.

Survivors of the immediate family include her three sons and one daughter-in-law, Jerry Lippincott of Lincoln, NE., Randy and Joyce Lippincott of Scottsdale, AZ., and Loren Lippincott of Central City, NE.; her daughter, Ronda Anderson of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; and her stepmother-in-law, Nancy Z. Lippincott of Mesa, AZ. Also surviving are her nine grandchildren and twenty great-grandchildren.

“ We enjoyed visiting with Rosalie when she lived in Central City. We appreciated her efforts to keep the memories of the North Platte Canteen alive. The many efforts on the home front to encourage soldiers during WWII remains an example of the patriotism of the Grand Generation. Rosalie seemed upbeat whenever we saw her. She will be missed. Sincerely, Gary and Cherlyn Haussermann “ Deepest sympathy to Jerry, Randy, Loren and families on your mother's passing. I have fond memories of Rosie's involvement with the 15-33 Flying Club at Central City Airport in the 1960's. I was honored to be able to hear her speak at the High Plains School Veterans Day observance the last time I was home in Nebraska. Sister Kathy and Brother Brian join with me in sending our condolences.

“ Thinking of your family as you reflect on your Mom's (Rosalie) remarkable life. What a blessing she was not only to your family but to all who knew her. She raised a wonderful family; educated children; served God, her local community and her country. Rosalie followed the footsteps God placed in her heart, to be of service to others. Rosalie spent many years building a legacy which will live on through you, her family. We extend our sincere sympathy. Larry and Darlene Douthit
