“ I met Roy at Holmes Lake NH visiting veterans. He was very sociable and outgoing and enjoyed reading. We share some of our time both had in Vietnam, his Army time, and his stint as a policeman. He enjoyed relating some of the fun and challenges of his cruise with his daughter. When stopping in for my routine, I was saddened to learn of his sudden passing. Sympathies to the family and May he Rest in Peace.

“ I always called him Wayne when we were young. It was always fun going to visit. Aunt Stella was a wonderful cook. Her chicken and dumplings were delicious. Pitman, Mary, Marie, Billy and Wayne were always fun. Will always have our memories of those times. Live and will always remember my cousins. Joyce Roberts. My mother was Elease Walker who was Stella Walkers sister.
