

Scott A. DeMers

January 30, 1970 - February 8, 2019

Scott Allen DeMers was born on January 30, 1970 to Duane and Sandy (Blase) DeMers in Aurora. Scott grew up in the Hordville area, and graduated from Polk-Hordville High School in 1988. After graduation, Scott would get a job at Hamilton Telecommunications in Aurora. While working there he met Tammi Peters, and on September 5, 1992 they were united in marriage at the Bethesda Mennonite Church in Henderson. To this union they would have 4 children, Jared, Payton, Andrew, and Caleb. While they were married, Scott and Tammi started a Christian band called "Proclamation". His love of music would lead him all over the Midwest, proclaiming their love of Christ through their music. He was a talented musician, playing guitar, singing and writing the songs they would perform. Scott then began working for Friesen Construction from 1992 until 1998. He then worked for Blue Beacon Trucking in York, and at the York Ethanol Plant until 2006. In 2006 Scott and Tammi moved to Kansas City where they were music missionaries, continuing to spread the gospel to others, until returning to York in 2007. In 2009 Scott moved to Grand Island and began working various jobs, and would then be united in marriage to Kim Arnold, where he would gain a stepson, Tylan.

Scott was an avid Nebraska Cornhusker football fan. Spreading the gospel through his music was a large part of his life, as well as helping out others in their time of need. His faith carried him through many hard times. He attended the Bethesda Mennonite Church in Henderson, New Heights Assembly

Church in York, Abundant Life Christian Church, as well as the Mission Church in Omaha. Throughout his life Scott attended many bible study groups, but especially enjoyed his groups that he attended while living in Grand Island and Omaha.

Those left to cherish his memory are his parents; Duane and Sandy DeMers of Hastings; his children; Jared DeMers of Lincoln, Payton DeMers-Sahling of Seward, Andrew Sahling of York, and Caleb Sahling of York, his stepson; Tylene Arnold of Grand Island, his siblings; Mike and Jill DeMers of Hordville, Mark and Barb DeMers of Osceola, and Sherri and Jerrad Stroh of Juniata.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents; Harold and Shirley Blase and Hazel and Clarence DeMers, and his aunt and uncles; Rick and Sherri Blase and Fred DeMers.

“ Prayers to Scott's family. I saw Scott in Walmart in York 3-4 years ago and he caught me up from the last time I saw him at Hordvile High. I'll always remember his fun and a little onry personality. He was a joy to have in class. Rest in peace Scott!

“ Scott helped in the Mission Church Cafe and also attended the Gonzales Sunday Night bible study. He was always a joy to serve with, as he always had a smile on his face and could carry on a conversation with everyone he met. He also talked about his family and how much he loved/prayed for them.

Praying for comfort and peace for his family.
