Teresa Lynn Senkbile was born on April 1, 1962 in Central City to Wayne and Emma (Brondel) Senkbile. Teresa grew up in Central City, graduating from Central City High School in 1980. Following high school, Teresa began working for Don and Jan Placke at The DJ Shop, and also babysitting for their three children. She continued working and developing a special relationship with The Placke Family for over 20 years. After their children were grown up, she then took care for her grandmother Esther Brondel.

Teresa enjoyed volunteering for many years for Litzenberg Long Term Care, and the Hospital. She always carried a prize winning smile on her face, especially when she was helping and caring for others. She loved the color blue, sports, and animals as well.

Teresa was a member of the Chapman United Methodist Church.

Those left to cherish her memory are her two brothers; Mitch Senkbile of Central City, Kevin (Lori) Senkbile of Central City, one nephew; Justin Senkbile of Omaha, one niece; Jennifer Senkbile of Omaha, and her dear friend; Carla VonOhlen of Central City.

She was preceded in death by; her parents.
