Troy was born on November 3, 1966 to Larry D. and Brooksie A. (Rogers) Fenster in Aurora, Nebraska. He grew up in the Aurora area and attended Aurora Public Schools. Troy lived in Mojave and Boron, California. He also lived in Central City, Aurora, and Lincoln, Nebraska. He worked as an asphalt layer and did construction. He loved his family, especially his nieces, nephews, and spending time with them. He enjoyed going to the river, camping, jeeping, fishing with his Dad, brothers, and family. He like to watch movies and do model cars.

He was involved in the River Rats Association. He was baptized at his last birthday party. He was very proud to be baptized. He said a weight was lifted off of him after that.

He is survived by his siblings- Larry Jr. and Denise Fenster, Jeanette Fenster Frauendorfer, Chad Fenster, Danny Fenster, and David Galvan; aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; grandparents- Dale D. and Thelma Fenster; and brother-Eric Galvan.

Special thanks to niece- Silvina Smith, aunt- Bev Collingham, hospice nurses and Cottonwood Estates for all their care and help with Troy's needs the past year.
