Tyler was born on August 20, 1998 in Central City, NE to Bill J. and Missy A. (Jones) Hillmer. He grew up near Central City and attended Palmer Public Schools.

Tyler was a hard worker with a very caring heart and positive attitude. He was involved in football, basketball, track, FFA and 4-H. Tyler enjoyed hunting, playing video games, riding the golf cart, and listening to music. His current interests included Jake and Cody's Demolition Derby Car; a go-cart with no brakes; and riding his brother's 4 wheeler. He liked hanging out with friends and family, especially with his brother Jake and sister Gracie.

Survivors left to cherish his memory include his parents, Bill and Missy Hillmer of Palmer, NE, brother and sister, Jake Hillmer and Gracie Hillmer both of Palmer, NE, grandparents, Frances and Walt Larsen of Central City, NE; Lenny and Jeannie Jones of Wayne, NE, his uncles and aunts, Chad and Rachel Jones of Yankton, SD; Barb and Kenny Lautenschlager of Mission Viejo, CA; Julie and Ron Kula of Central City, NE; Garry and Connie Hillmer of Central City, NE; and Doug Larsen of Central City, NE, and several cousins.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Garry "Hook" Hillmer.

Memorials are suggested to the Tyler Hillmer Memorial Fund and condolences may be sent to the family at www.wagnerfuneral.com.
