Vera Mae was born on October 17, 1927 to Henry and Lorna (Lewis) Hagen in Palmer, Nebraska. She attended rural schools. In 1940, she and her four sisters moved to Central City to finish their schooling. Vera married Donald R. Christensen on June 10, 1945 in South Dakota to which four sons were born; Dennis, Kenneth, Gary, and Richard. The couple spent most of their married life around Central City except for a few years in Wood River and Marquette. Vera worked for Central City Public Schools as a cook for 29 years, nine of those years she served as head cook. Vera loved being around and serving the children at the school. Don died on January 19, 1984. Unfortunately, Don and Vera's son Dennis, died four years later on the exact same day as Don.

On October 25, 1985 Vera married Robert R. Craig in Grand Island. Vera retired from the school in 1997. Vera loved to fish, especially fishing trips to Merritt as a family. She also loved the big group of friends they met at Merritt. She enjoyed working in the garden and especially having family come to her home.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husbands- Donald R. Christensen and Robert Craig; two sons- Dennis Christensen and Kenneth Christensen; three sisters- Leona Moon, Viola Albright, and Nelda Campbell Briggs.

“ My dear Aunt Mae will truly be missed by all in this world. She is one of the dearest, kindest people to ever be. She held all family gatherings at her house and put out the best tasting spread ever. I will always hold those memories close to my heart as some of the best times with all the family. Gary, Michelle and Rich-you had one very special Mom. Love to you all.

“ I will never forget the year I got to spend Thanksgiving in Nebraska and we went out to Central City somewhere along the line and we had deep fried turkey with mom and Ron. It's a great memory of a great woman. Thoughts and prayers.

“ *Gary and Rich,
The wonderful memories I had with your mom. When we were together, it was like a dream. She was a wonderful lady! I will have great memories of the times spent together. Times we should keep quiet. May God comfort you. Love you so much, Jerrie Kay*

“ Gary and Rich,
Thinking of you during this difficult time. I have so many fond memories of your mom. Growing up I always looked forward to our summer trips to Aunt Mae's. Special times!
Love,
